

Ibibo FTV iFashion Photographer Contest

Fashion TV supports young fashion talent with an exciting contest in association with Ibibo. The Ibibo FTV iFashion Photographer Contest invites budding fashion photographers to upload their portfolios on ibibo.com, to be adjudged by the Ibibo community, FTV panel and fashion photographer Jatin Kampani. The contest will culminate with five photographers shooting FTV models, under Kampani's guidance.

"There is so much talent across the country, which is waiting to be tapped. Think about fashion, what it means to you and how you might want to excite and inspire the viewer. Perhaps try and capture a fashion moment; you can either shoot in a studio or on location; there are so many ways fashion can be interpreted," Kampani told us.
